BIRTHDAY MESSAGE

It is that time again to release my much-anticipated Annual Birthday Book.

I am particularly excited to put together 34 quotes for us this year, 2025. It is humbling to witness how I grow in age and wisdom right before your eyes. It is the Lord's doing, and it remains marvelous in my sight.

The year that just concluded was very strategic for me, marked by compelling moves. One thing I am especially grateful for is that I accomplished close to one hundred percent of all my written goals.

This year, I recorded another comedy special tagged "I DON'T NEED YOUR OPINION." In it, I addressed the dreaded subject of grief through a comical lens. Watch out for it when it is released.

Let me also add that my last special, Open Secret, won the Best Comedy Performance Award at the Toronto International Film Festival. Can you see it? "We Are Global" is not just a declaration. it is a reality.

I also released another book titled "Pillars," and successfully toured major cities across North America and Europe, communicating global relevance.

As I celebrate 34, my central message is Audacity. I have come to realize that audacity is the gate pass to fulfillment. As you journey into the new year, never leave your house without a full dose of audacity in your pouch.

There is no certainty carved out for anyone. The people you think have it all together are swimming in doubts too. They have simply learned how to overwhelm their fear with belief. Believe me, success is more likely for the bold.

Stop waiting for the coast to clear. Move. Success is an action word. Be committed to doing rather than saying. Don't take comfort in analysis; take pride in your swiftness to action.

I have packaged 34 quotes in this book. Please digest at least one daily. As you read, pay attention to how your instincts interpret each one. The power is not in what I write; it is in what it awakens within you. When you catch these gems, power them with action.

I have discovered the uniqueness of my calling, and I have seen that I carry a multiplying grace. Evidently, I have watched many men rise around me simply by soaking in my God-given insights and direction. You will not be an exception.

Ride on the wings of these insights.

See you when I clock 35, by God's grace.

Happy birthday to me, by the way.

they are just not committed to the discipline.

your commitments that you should revisit.
